Genoa, March 9.

A Tartan from Marseilles appeared some Days ago off of Portofino and Leghorne, in order to be admitted to Quarantain, but was obliged to bear away as soon as she had taken in the Provisions and other Necessaries they stood in need of. Advices from Gibraltar say, that Commerce is again restored between the Garrison and the neighbouring Spaniards. Letters from Milan say, that the Emperour designs to have a Body of 22000 Men in Italy, and the King of Sardinia one of 25000. The Count de Cifuentes is arrived here from Vienna.

Florence, March 10. The Duke of Lorrain has wrote touching his Pretensions to the Montferrat, to the Great Duke of Tuscany. The Republick of Lucca has promised to observe a Neutrality amidst the Differences that are apprehended may arise in Italy. It is reported, that the Prince and Princess of Modena design to go to Paris, in order to assist at the French King's Coronation.

Copenhagen, March 24. 'The Messenger who overtook and apprehended Madmoiselle de Guldenstein and the young Marquess de Monteleone, has been rewarded by the Count de Guldenstein with 500 Crowns: The Young Couple are to continue under Arrest at Helsingbourg till the Return of the Express which the Governour of the Place has sent to Stockholm; mean time, 'tis said, the Count de Guldenstein objects against the young Marquess, upon account of his being a Papist. Our Naval Preparations go on successfully; Prahmes are ordered for carrying Provisions on board the Men of War; and the Colonels of Regiments, Horse and Foot, are commanded to signify to the absent Officers to repair in three Weeks time to their respective Posts, under severe Penalties: All the Regiments are to be in a marching Readiness by the Middle of next Month.

Hambourg, March 27. 'Baron Gortz is arrived here, to settle Matters relating to the Executorship, and particularly about the House of the deceased Baron Gortz: The Imperial Minister insists upon having that House for his Residence, and the present Baron having accommodated Matters dependent with other Persons concerned in the late Baron's Estate, has offer'd that Hôtel to the Magistrates of this City for 40000 Crowns: Upon which an extraordinary Assembly has been convoked, in order to come to a final Resolution on that Affair.

Paris, April 1. The Duke of Orleans recovers but slowly, he took Physick Yesterday, and 'tis hoped he will be shortly out of Danger, though his Distemper is a very bad one, being a Dropsy in his Breast. He began Yesterday to give Audience. Father de Signieres, a Jesuit, Confessor to the Duchess of Orleans, is appointed Confessor to the King; but the Cardinal de Noailles refusing to give his Approbation of this Choice, 'tis believed the Abbé Vitman, Sub-Preceptor to his Majesty, will execute that Function till his Eminence approves of the Jesuit. It is rumoured, that the Militia is to be put into good Discipline, which occasions a Doubt of the Opening of the Congress of Cambray may not be deferred for some Time yet; and if publick and private Accounts can be relied upon, 'tis not unlikely but Italy may soon become the Theatre of War. On the 27th of last Month, at Six in the Morning, M. Paris du Vernay went to the Bank to expedite the Orders the Comptroller-General had given the Evening before; and as the Liquidation is to be finished with all the Speed possible, 20 Commissaries are therefore newly appointed, chosen out of the Counsellours of the Great Council. The Abbé Tanfio, who transacts the Affairs of France at Rome, has sent back to the King the Order of the Holy Ghost, which his Majesty had offered to Don Carlos Albani the late Pope's Nephew; with that Family's Excuses for not accepting this Mark of the King's Favour.

Standgate-Creek, March 23. Yesterday came in the Mary Galley from Barcelona in 22 Days.

Deal, March 25. The outward-bound are still here. Arrived the Parthenopie from Messina.
